About Second Chance Employment Services

Second Chance Employment Services (SCES) is a Washington, DC based non-profit organization of human resource professionals that seeks to promote financial security for women who are abused and their dependents who have experienced domestic violence. Through comprehensive training and employment placement services, these women are finding meaningful careers. Established in February 2002, SCES has successfully trained hundreds of women and placed them into long-term professions with top-tier companies including America Online, Capital One, Pepco, SunTrust Bank, Price Waterhouse Coopers, AT&T, Fannie Mae, Booz Allen Hamilton, and Washington Gas.
